

CKC1 Introduction to Humanities Version 1

Section: Business & Finance • Total Questions: 10 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. Which scientific theory of the realist period continues to be controversial in some circles today?

- (A) Skepticism
  - (B) Individualism
  - (C) Humanism
  - (D) Evolution
-

2. Across the disciplines, by which field of study is human purpose and meaning explored?

- (A) Humanities
  - (B) Social science
  - (C) Hard science
  - (D) Psychology
-

3. How does philosophy answer questions about human development and culture?

- (A) By encouraging the use of critical-thinking skills
  - (B) By conducting clinical experiments
  - (C) By teaching adherence to ideologies
  - (D) By creating predictive models of future probable actions
-

4. What are the major themes of the romantic period?

- (A) Passion, colonialism, and individualism
  - (B) Capitalism, suffering, and idealism
  - (C) Collectivism, conformity, and following social norms
  - (D) Classicism, neo-Platonism, and order
-

5. Which branch of the humanities explores the aesthetic effect and value of a structure within its local setting?

- (A) Painting
  - (B) Dance
  - (C) Architecture
  - (D) Sculpture
-

6. What was a goal of the realism movement?

- (A) Maintain a belief in an ideal, unchanging truth beyond the visible world
  - (B) Condemn the working class and praise the aristocrat
  - (C) Communicate an honest and unbiased view of contemporary life
  - (D) Elevate exceptional individuals to genius or hero status
-

7. From which period does the modern term 'Machiavellian' originate, describing someone willing to commit bad acts in exchange for personal gain?

- (A) Realist
  - (B) Renaissance
  - (C) Classical
  - (D) Enlightenment
-

8. Which perspective of Western culture did ancient China's Confucianism and Buddhism also reflect?

- (A) Socialism
  - (B) Romanticism
  - (C) Stoicism
  - (D) Humanism
-

9. Which characteristics did neoclassicism contribute to architecture?

- (A) Tall columns and lavish interiors
  - (B) Elaborate ornamentation and asymmetrical patterns
  - (C) Gothic arches and flying buttresses
  - (D) Grand scale and simple form
-

10. Which statement is true regarding transcendentalism in the United States during the romantic period?

- (A) Transcendentalism began in the age of German Enlightenment, but it was only marginally influential in the United States.
  - (B) Transcendentalism was based upon an understanding of the impact of artistic expression during America's agricultural revolution.
  - (C) Transcendentalism embraced the capitalistic values of the Industrial Revolution, emphasizing the connection between humans and machines.
  - (D) Transcendentalism emphasized the spiritual value of nature, which was exemplified in the writings and works of a variety of Americans.
-