

FF01 Human Growth and Development Version 1

Section: Sociology & Human Behaviour • Total Questions: 10 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. Which form of child abuse is incest considered to be?

- (A) Psychological abuse
 - (B) Physical abuse
 - (C) Verbal abuse
 - (D) Sexual abuse
-

2. Which forms of play indicate that children by the age five have achieved strong psychosocial development skills?

- (A) Parallel and onlooker
 - (B) Onlooker and solitary
 - (C) Associative and parallel
 - (D) Cooperative and associative
-

3. Which characteristics are typically emphasized by working class families when teaching their children?

- (A) Obedience and reliability
 - (B) Self-reliance and innovativeness
 - (C) Self-direction and assertiveness
 - (D) Innovativeness and independence
-

4. How do rules of endogamy affect the social relationship of marriage?

- (A) They dictate the number of children adults should have in a marriage
 - (B) They encourage marriage between people who do not share social characteristics
 - (C) They encourage marriage between people who share social characteristics
 - (D) They indicate the groups a person should marry within and those a person should not marry in
-

5. Why is emerging adulthood sometimes considered the age of possibilities?

- (A) Young adults sometimes relate to being a teen and sometimes relate to being an adult
 - (B) Young adults believe they are old enough to have a serious relationship
 - (C) Young adults feel optimistic that they will get where they want to in life because their dreams have yet to be tested
 - (D) Young adults feel they should follow the same path their parents followed for marriage
-

6. What is known as a normal change in the elasticity of the eye due to age?

- (A) Presbyopia
 - (B) Hypertension
 - (C) Atherosclerosis
 - (D) Scotopic sensitivity
-

7. What does a decrease in spending time with family reflect in the psychosocial development of teenagers?

- (A) Homophily
 - (B) Autonomy
 - (C) Cliques
 - (D) Conflict
-

8. Which is a central element of Erikson's trust vs. mistrust stage?

- (A) Using symbols to represent words
 - (B) Attachment between child and caregiver
 - (C) Assertion of independence
 - (D) Using logic to understand the world
-

9. Which aspect of sexual growth development occurs in males?

- (A) High increase in estrogen
 - (B) Spermatarche
 - (C) Menarche
 - (D) Broadening of hips
-

10. Which definition describes object permanence?

- (A) Infants develop an understanding that objects that are out of sight still exist
- (B) Infants develop a fear of unfamiliar objects
- (C) Infants can work with objects without having prior experience
- (D) Infants have a cognitive understanding that solid objects cannot move through each other