

QYC1 C273 Introduction to Sociology Version 2

Section: Sociology & Human Behaviour • Total Questions: 10 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. Which sociological perspective views society as a system of interrelated parts?

- (A) Conflict
 - (B) Functional analysis
 - (C) Microsociology
 - (D) Symbolic interactionism
-

2. Which sociological perspective is frame analysis associated with?

- (A) Functionalism
 - (B) Feminism
 - (C) Symbolic interactionism
 - (D) Conflict
-

3. According to the works of Marx, why did workers feel alienated?

- (A) Because they did repetitive tasks on a small part of a product
 - (B) Because they formed groups at work as a form of resistance
 - (C) Because they used their own tools to produce an entire product
 - (D) Because they were affected by self-fulfilling stereotypes
-

4. What is the definition of "cult"?

- (A) A religion that is created with the purpose of harming people
 - (B) A religion that is interconnected with the government
 - (C) A new religion that is at odds with the dominant religion in a society
 - (D) A religion that is well established and highly bureaucratized
-

5. Rachel grew up believing that all people who wear red shirts are aggressive. When Roy, who was wearing a red shirt, sat next to Rachel on the first day of Sociology class, she decided it would be a good idea to move seats. Roy, as a result, decided that Rachel was not very friendly. What is this interaction between Rachel and Roy an example of?

- (A) Ascribed status guiding social interactions
 - (B) The importance of seating assignments on the first day of class
 - (C) Stereotypes guiding social interactions
 - (D) Poor fashion choices
-

6. What is the first stage of most procreational marriages?

- (A) Child-rearing
 - (B) Courtship
 - (C) Later life
 - (D) Marriage
-

7. How might Charles Horton Cooley use the concept of the looking-glass self to explain the influence of media on identity and behavior?

- (A) Media is an illustration of the "I," and people are able to evaluate reactions of others through the lens of the media.
 - (B) Media affects the way that people perceive themselves because media reflects society's views of itself.
 - (C) Media is a symbol that is given to a person by society.
 - (D) Media is the "generalized other."
-

8. According to the conflict perspective, why is stratification universal?

- (A) Some people work harder than others, and so they are compensated for the time and effort they dedicate.
 - (B) Society must make certain that its positions are filled, but some positions are more important than others. Therefore, society must offer incentives to qualified people so that those roles will be filled.
 - (C) Groups struggle to possess resources. Once a group has a larger share of resources, it has power and will use that power to extract labor and resources from those groups that have fewer resources.
 - (D) Stratification is universal only in capitalistic countries.
-

9. How does the conflict perspective describe prejudice?

- (A) Prejudice is used by the dominant class as a means to oppress those in the economically deprived lower classes.
 - (B) Prejudice arises from the frustration of those who are economically or socially disadvantaged.
 - (C) Prejudice has varying degrees depending on one's combination of class, race, and gender.
 - (D) Prejudice is a learned behavior.
-

10. Which statement describes the effects of stereotypes on social interaction?

- (A) They have a predictable effect
- (B) They influence how we perceive one another
- (C) They influence how we perceive race but not gender
- (D) They play a minor role in social interactions