HESI A2 Vocabulary Practice Test

Section: HESI A2 Vocabulary Exams • Total Questions: 10 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. Which word describes a person who shows a keen interest in golf by owning custom golf clubs and living on a golf course?

(A) Listless
(B) Apathetic
(C) Avid
(D) Feeful

2. Which verb is defined as 'to bring about; cause to happen; to accomplish; to make'?

(A) Affect
(B) Accept
(C) Expect
(D) Effect

3. What is the meaning of the word bilateral in the following sentence? "The dog developed bilateral weakness in its hindquarters, so the veterinarian created a wheeled cart to help the dog walk."

(A) Present on two sides
(B) Available for exercise
(C) Affecting the left side
(D) Affecting the right side

4. What does 'anterior' refer to in relation to the body?

(A) Topmost
(B) Rear
(C) Front
(D) Lowermost

5. What does LABILE mean?

(A) Extremely changing
(B) Extremely changeable
(C) Rapidly changing
(D) With a high fever

---

6. To be convoluted is to be...

(A) Complex
(B) Clever
(C) Candid
(D) Asinine

---

7. Which sentence is correct?

(A) The physician wrote a prescription for the needed medicine.
(B) The physician wrote a recommendation for the needed medicine.
(C) The physician wrote a report for the needed medication.
(D) The physician wrote a subscription for the needed medication.

---

8. The plumber used a tube to open up the curved pipe. What type of tube did the plumber most likely use?

(A) Solid
(B) Rigid
(C) Flexible
(D) Perforated

---

9. Select the meaning of the word chivalrous in the sentence: "In medieval times, knights were expected to uphold chivalrous behavior."

(A) cowardly
(B) honorable
(C) reckless
(D) unfriendly

---

10. Select the meaning of the underlined word in this sentence: His deteriorating condition caused the nurse to call the doctor.

(A) Increasing
(B) Voracious
(C) Worsening
(D) Volatile