

Certified Protection Professional Sample Exam Questions

Section: Certified Protection Professional Exams • Total Questions: 10 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. "Risk acceptance" is defined as the:

- (A) level of loss for which a client is able to receive insurance.
 - (B) level of loss a client is able to accept without declaring bankruptcy.
 - (C) level of loss a client is able to accept without severely disrupting operations.
 - (D) highest level of security obtainable without cost.
-

2. In a theft of proprietary information case, which of the following steps is most important to the security manager?

- (A) Sensitive products were not displayed at trade shows.
 - (B) Active steps were taken to protect the information.
 - (C) Every employee was trained to classify the information.
 - (D) The information was patented, trademarked, or copyrighted.
-

3. Which form of investigation is the least understood and most under-utilized?

- (A) Due diligence
 - (B) Background
 - (C) Undercover
 - (D) Internal
-

4. Is a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) required to give a rights warning when conducting a general or non-confrontational interview via teleconference if the subject is located in another country?

- (A) Yes, the CPP must give a rights warning as it is in another country.
 - (B) No, but the CPP should check with the legal department as country restrictions may apply.
 - (C) No, the CPP is not required to give a rights warning as it is in another country.
 - (D) Yes, but the CPP should check with the legal department as country restrictions may apply.
-

5. Which human nature attribute presents the biggest challenge for an investigator?

- (A) Accuracy
 - (B) Thoroughness
 - (C) Relevance
 - (D) Objectivity
-

6. Along with adding value, the goal in preparing the proposed security department budget is to:

- (A) justify expenditures.
 - (B) provide for adequate staffing.
 - (C) decrease expenditures.
 - (D) properly assess asset lifecycle.
-

7. Which persons should be interviewed first as part of an investigation?

- (A) Persons who may not be available later
 - (B) Those most likely to be cooperative
 - (C) Persons likely to have the most pertinent information
 - (D) Those most likely to be hostile
-

8. Research shows that employees are more likely to steal from businesses that are:

- (A) involved in high-tech industries.
 - (B) impersonal and lack clear policies.
 - (C) without a security officer force.
 - (D) not quality focused.
-

9. According to the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator, which type of person is energy conscious, enjoys being with large groups of people, and prefers to act rather than reflect?

- (A) Introverted
 - (B) Judging
 - (C) Perceiving
 - (D) Extroverted
-

10. To ensure that employee privacy rights are protected when conducting pre-employment credit checks, an employer should:

- (A) use only information obtained from the applicant.
 - (B) notify the applicant if a credit check will be performed.
 - (C) provide a copy of the completed application form to the prospective employee.
 - (D) conduct all pre-employment interviews in the presence of a witness.
-