

5512 Praxis Test

Section: 5511 Fundamental Subjects Exams • Total Questions: 1 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. Based on the details in the passage, which of the following words best describes Miss Havisham's character?

Abraham Lincoln was the sixteenth president of the United States. Being one of the tallest presidents, he cast a long shadow over those he spoke to from the podium and offered his audience a significant presence. He was perhaps one of the most eloquent orators of all time, moving people to action and rearranging the social construct of the country. Other presidents who changed the country through their moving speeches include Roosevelt, through his famous fireside chats, and Kennedy, through his television broadcasts

- (A) Repentant
- (B) Vengeful
- (C) Indifferent
- (D) Sorrowful