

5541 Praxis Test

Section: 5511 Fundamental Subjects Exams • Total Questions: 1 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. The author most likely uses the phrase “And fired the shot heard round the world” to emphasize the.

“It wasn't Susan's wit or beauty that attracted me. There was never great passion—perhaps that was the point. I liked her humdrum dexterity and ability to cope. She wasn't helpless before the world. I envy her capability, and wish I had half of it.”

- (A) momentousness of an event
- (B) hopelessness of a situation
- (C) loud sound of a cannon being fired
- (D) forcefulness of the wind