

5578 Praxis Test

Section: 5511 Fundamental Subjects Exams • Total Questions: 1 • Format: Verified Q&A

1. A teacher is a person who is patient. A teacher is dedicated. A teacher helps others. Which of the following revisions to the sentence best demonstrates parallel structure?

*The following excerpt is from the introduction to The Way to Rainy Mountain by N. Scott Momaday. Once there was a lot of sound in my grandmother's house, a lot of coming and going, feasting and talk. The summers there were full of excitement and reunion. The Kiowas are a summer people; they abide the cold and keep to themselves, but when the season turns and the land becomes warm and vital they cannot hold still; an old love of going returns upon them.*

- (A) A teacher is a person who is patient, dedicated, and helpful.
- (B) A teacher is patient, likes to be dedicated, and to help.
- (C) A teacher is a person who is patient, dedicated, and likes to help.
- (D) A teacher is patient, dedicated, and helps.